Erika Eisele

Born in the U.S.A. Erika enjoys a successful career as a freelance musician in the U.K. and abroad. Having studied at the Royal Academy of Music with professors Lydia Mordkovich, Jean Harvey and Igor Petrushevski, Erika gained a 1st Class degree for her Undergraduate studies and a Distinction for her Postgraduate Diploma. She has performed at the Royal Albert Hall, Royal Festival Hall, Wigmore Hall and the Purcell Room as well as the BBC Proms and the Edinburgh International Festival. Since leaving the Academy in 2006, Erika has performed with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, the Royal Philharmonic Concert Orchestra and the RTE National Symphony Orchestra of Ireland and spent a year as a member of the Southbank Sinfonia.

Jennifer Carter

Jennifer was born in Bristol in 1985. She studied first at Colston's Girls' School, where she was awarded the Merchant Venturer's Vocational Scholarship. She then won a full scholarship to the Junior department of the Welsh College, where Jennifer received the Elgar recital prize, concurrently receiving a scholarship to study at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama. Jennifer has now been awarded a further scholarship to specialise her studies in accompaniment with Robin Bowman, Paul Roberts, Caroline Palmer, and Eugene Asti at the Guildhall. As a soloist, Jennifer has enjoyed playing in Bristol Cathedral, Glasgow Cathedral, the Swiss Church, Covent Garden, and in St Mary's Cathedral as part of the Edinburgh Festival, as well as recently playing at LSO St Luke's as part of the LSO Discovery series. Last summer she toured Scandinavia with her piano trio. She has just won the Queen Mary II accompanists prize at the Guildhall, and has now been made an accompanist for Junior and Senior Guildhall, and City University Music Department. She is kindly supported by the Stationers' Company, and the Lawrence Atwell Charity.
