First Friday Film Club 2pm in the Link Room

The Film Club at All Saints is starting again on the Friday 7th October with a showing of the Oscar winning production

The Kings Speech

Starring Colin Firth, Geoffrey Rush and Helena Bonham Carter the film tells the story how King George VI largely overcame his speech impediment in public with the help of an eccentric speech therapist. The press said 'Like all great films it simply fills you with joy' Not to be missed...

On Friday November 4th we are showing

Made in Dagenham

another very positive story with an uplifting feel good factor. The story follows the emotional journey of a group of friends from the factory floor in Dagenham to the House of Commons to successfully gain equal pay for equal work. Nothing is impossible if you stand up for what you believe! Players include Sally Hawkins, Geraldine James and Bob Hoskins. A film by the Director of Calendar Girls.

Our seasonal offering on Friday December 2nd is the classic with Hayley Mills, Alan Bates and Bernard Lee. A timeless tale described as a 'charming allegorical study of childhood innocence- an enchanting family classic'. This will be followed with some seasonal refreshment!

Whistle Down the Wind
