

How to conduct God-centred PCC meetings

A seminar conducted by Martin Cavender, Director of ReSource in Wells

Wednesday 27th October 2010

7.30-9.30pm, St John's

Lodge Causeway, Fishponds, BS16 3QG

Do you sometimes wonder after PPC meetings 'Where was the Holy Spirit in all of that?!' Well help is at hand in the form of Martin Cavender from ReSource. His tried and tested inspirational seminar is sure to breathe new life and direction into your PCC meetings, bringing your meetings back to a place of spirit-led decision making, and Christ-minded envisioning!

"A brilliant, thought provoking and enjoyable session." " We have been enabled to focus on the Lord and his will for us as a PCC and shown ways in which we can grow spiritually in order to fulfil our vision" - comments from a PCC evening at Blandford Forum, October 2009

Before becoming Director of ReSource, Martin Cavender was the Director of Springboard, the Archbishops' initiative for evangelism. A former ecclesiastical lawyer, Martin is a founder member of the Archbishops' College of Evangelists, and holds the Archbishop's Cross of St Augustine, presented for services to the Anglican Communion. Martin is gifted in mission and with long experience of working across the traditions of the church. He is a deeply spiritual man with a great gift of encouragement, passionate about the gospel and committed to working alongside others of all ages and backgrounds.

From the Partnership Review document by Roger Morgan: "I propose that you invite my colleague Martin Cavender to conduct an evening for all your PCCs taken together. Martin is an expert on helping PCCs to understand their role which is not just about finances but very much about vision and outreach. Martin's PCC seminar is in great demand and he leaves encouraged people wherever he goes."

All PCC members strongly encouraged to attend! Others welcome too!
