

For the attention of all parishioners

re Ordination of Nick Adams at Bristol Cathedral.

Sunday 28th June at 10am.

Congregational members who wish to support Nick Adams on his ordination as a deacon to serve as assistant curate (pioneer minister) in the East Bristol Partnership are warmly invited to attend this service. No tickets are required but spaces are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis on the day. As a guide there will be about fifty places available per candidate.

It would be good if -perhaps by a show of hands on a Sunday across the services-how many might come from each parish.

It should be a splendid event.

Nick will begin work after ordination and you will have opportunity to meet him at the EBP AGM which is preceded by a Eucharist on Wednesday 8th July at S Ambrose.

Nick and his wife Helen will live at 15 Bexley Road, Fishponds. BS16. (further contact details will follow as and when they are available.)

Keith Thomasson will be the training incumbent and if you have any questions please do ask him.

Nick will serve across the whole of East Bristol and so you will have had opportunity to meet him by the Autumn. As a pioneer curate-something which we are piloting- Nick will whilst having a foot in our church communities work across the whole community using drama as a basis for exploring faith. Nick was trained at RADA, King's College London and in Cambridge at Westcott House. He also used to sell cigars in Harrods. Nick will be only one of five stipendiary curates ordained this Pentecost, and so we are really privileged.

Please could church leaders let me know numbers of those wishing to attend, or encourage folk to contact me personally, but the beginning of next week if possible.

Thanks,

Mark
