

Uncovering the Gospel in the city.

A day of exploration, theology and Bible study for those seeking to put faith to work in their own context.

Led by Dr Paula Gooder

Saturday 12th November 2011

10.00am – 4.00pm

St Stephen's Church

Bristol BS1 1EQ

Cost: £25

Dr Paula Gooder is a freelance writer and lecturer in Biblical Studies. After studying in Oxford, she spent 12 years in theological education (first at Ripon College Cuddesdon and then at the Queen's Foundation for Ecumenical Theological education, Birmingham,) before making the move to full-time freelance work. Her research areas include the writings of Paul, with a particular emphasis on 2 Corinthians and Mysticism, Biblical Interpretation and the Development of Ministry in the Early Church. She is Canon Theologian of Birmingham and Guildford Cathedrals, Lay Canon at Salisbury Cathedral, Visiting lecturer at King's College, London, Associate lecturer at St Mellitus College, London, and Theological Adviser to the Bible Society. She is a Reader in the Church of England and a member of General Synod. Dr Gooder is an inspiring speaker and explorer of scripture and we are pleased to be able to welcome her to this event.

The day will be an opportunity to explore Biblical perspectives and insights into our understanding of living faithfully in our cities and towns. There will be opportunity to reflect and share insights into how such perspectives can shape our discipleship and community engagement. The day has been organised as a learning and development opportunity for those involved in church leadership, preaching, and community and social action.
