The East Bristol Partnership presents another spiritual 'take' on a classic film.

We revisit the eternal themes of humankind's storytelling tradition, a tradition that lives on in the popular culture of film.

These themes surface throughout the Bible, and are embodied in Jesus and his Gospel stories.

The stories woven around them entertain us, but also 'smuggle' into our minds the realisation of what we must learn to live well.

Why does the lawman need the dissolute, gun slinging gambler? Why does the gambler realise that the lawman is the only real friend he's ever had?

What do we see of the lawman and the gambler in ourselves and our neighbours?

What is God's take about what's really needed to defeat evil? The God of whom the Psalmist says 'Even darkness is not dark to you, the night is as light as the day.'

Watch this classic film and work-out some answers for yourself.
