

Hello - please could you pass this invitation on to the people in your church who would be interested in developing creative gifts and sharing God's creativity with others? Below are the posters - it would help us a lot if you could display one or both.

Many thanks in anticipation,
Bern Leckie,

"Imaging God in the 21st Century"
Saturday 20th June, 10am to 5pm
At Saint Stephens
(just off Corn Street near Bristol Centre)

This is a day together to encourage creative people in the Body of Christ, bringing together artists, writers and performers from around the world. If you have ever wondered how you can support creative Christians better, or would like to receive support yourself, this is a chance to:

- share your ideas and experiences with a creative body of Christians
- explore what God is doing among us with diverse arts and opportunities to worship
- stretch your imagination and faith with inspiring stories and involving workshops

Highlights include workshops on communication through story and creative improvisation, encouragement and practical advice on staying God-centred in a commercial world, live music from jazz legend David Friesen and a number of local musicians, physical theatre and artistic inspiration, and creative times of worship, prayer and meditation.

There is more information and a programme for the day at <http://www.saint-stephens.com/ig2009>

Book at the web site by Monday 15th June for the best prices: £20 (£12 concessions), 20% off for groups of 6 or more.

Price on the door is £25 for all.

Tickets are also available (at £5) for David Friesen's 4pm jazz concert alone - the day conference includes free entry for this concert.
